Volume XXIII

Foreword

"To live content with small means; to seek elegance rather than luxury, and refinement rather than fashion; to be worthy, not respectable, and wealthy, not rich; to listen to stars and winds, babes and sages with open heart; to study hard; to think quietly, act frankly, talk gently, await occasions, hurry never; in a word, to let the spiritual, unbidden and unconscious, grow up through the common—this is my symphony."

William Henry Channing

MR. CHARLES L. BROWN

We, the Class of 1953, dedicate our Andersonian to Mr. Charles L. Brown—one of the early members of Anderson Township High School's faculty. He first served as coach and teacher of history, but later substituted the duties of Director of Athletics for those of coach. In each role "Brownie" has been eminently successful, for he possesses that outstanding attribute of the successful teacher—the ability to gain the confidence of his pupils, to become their counselor and friend.

Mr. Brown is a link with the glory of the past and a pillar of strength in the present, but it is not alone for these characteristics that he is honored with this dedication. He looks to the future and believes in the future. Because he is possessed of this last quality—more than for any other—we now acclaim him.

Mr. Charles A. Taylor

Executive Head

Principal

My first year at Anderson Township has been most enjoyable. The willing cooperation of teachers, pupils and parents has been so complete that my change to a new position was made with a minimum of time and effort.

It is my sincere pledge to add the benefits of my training and experience to those of all the others, who are interested in education here at Anderson, so that we may provide our young people the very best opportunities for successful citizenship. The challenge is great, but the educational facilities and the personnel are available in ample proportions to accomplish that purpose.

Student Council

Student Council is an active organization composed of student representatives from each class. Every year the council sponsors the football Homecoming, including the Pow Wow and the dance after the game, and football and basketball cheerleading tryouts. This year in addition to the regular activities, Student Council sponsored an intensive clean-up campaign, a campaign to build up school spirit, and a program of assemblies every two weeks.
